TALENTED YOUNG PERFORMERS WANTED for an exciting new talent show on RTÉjr

Do you have a talented youngster ready to show off their skills on TV? Would you have the nerve to join them on stage? Or maybe Gran has always wanted to sing by their side?

Adare Productions are looking for the country's most gifted youngsters from 4-8 years of age to showcase their talents before mentoring a chosen family member(s) to join them on the big stage.

APPLYNOW

Be it a tango duet, a trio of violinists or a Beyoncé singer, if you have a talented youngster who fits the bill, we want to hear from you.

No judges, no competition, just a chance to showcase the best talent Ireland's kids (and their chosen grown ups!) have to offer.
