OK THEN! I ADMIT! I've never played the guitar! But I just really, really wanted to make Mika happy!
Didn't you see his face? And then it just came out and I was gonna take it back but the bell rang and then he called me a star and then I couldn't anymore and besides I have played the harp all my life! I mean they're both string instruments, how different can they be??
